Bringing Joy to Young Adults
Fighting Cancer

MEET HUNTER,

24 YEARS OLD
FIGHTING DSRCT SARCOMA

Hunter worked as a 911 dispatcher, deputy coroner, and volunteer firefighter. He loved his job, his family, and helping others—until cancer changed everything.

Today, Hunter is back at work as a 911 dispatcher, coaching boxing with his brother, and inspiring others with his strength and purpose.

“Life post cancer has been SO different. I want to meet people, share my story, travel, and help others.”

HUNTER'S WISH:

Tour the UFC META APEX with Dana White and watch a Fight Night in Vegas with his brother!
An unforgettable experience with his family.
